The Auglaize County Historical Society is pleased to announce its newest publication

Postcard Images of Auglaize County

by George Nearing

Postcard Images of Auglaize County is a hardbound, full-color, 232-page collection of more than 600 historic postcards of Auglaize County. Learn about our county through the scenes and stories revealed by these postcards, many of which have never before been published. St. Marys historian George Nearing worked with local historians, historical societies, postcard collectors, and others to compile this unparalleled set of images of the communities. A great gift for family and friends, this limited-edition volume will only increase in value through the years. Order your copy before they're all gone.
